

NAVAL MISSION

Agreement signed at Washington April 30, 1941, modifying agreement of December 12, 1940

Entered into force April 30, 1941

55 Stat. 1263; Executive Agreement Series 206

ADDITIONAL ARTICLE TO THE AGREEMENT OF DECEMBER 12, 1940 PROVIDING FOR THE DETAIL OF A UNITED STATES NAVAL MISSION TO ECUADOR

The Secretary of State of the United States of America and the Ambassador of the Republic of Ecuador at Washington hereby agree to the addition of the following article to the Agreement signed by them on December 12, 1940¹ providing for the detail of a United States Naval Mission to the Republic of Ecuador. This additional article shall be considered to be an integral part of the Agreement signed on December 12, 1940, as fully and completely as if it had been included in that Agreement, and as such integral part shall be subject to the provisions in regard to duration and termination concurrently with the other Articles of the Agreement.

Additional Article. Each member of the Mission and each dependent member of his family shall be provided with first-class accommodations for travel required and performed under this agreement by the shortest usually traveled sea route between the port of embarkation in the United States of America and his official residence in Ecuador, and from his official residence in Ecuador to the port of debarkation in the United States of America. Each member of the Mission shall be reimbursed for the expenses of shipment of his household effects, baggage and automobile; such reimbursement shall include all necessary expenses incident to unloading from the steamer upon arrival in Ecuador, cartage between the ship and the residence in Ecuador, and packing and loading on board the steamer upon departure from Ecuador. The cost of this transportation for members of the Mission, dependent members of their families, their household effects, baggage and automobile shall be borne by the Government of the United States of America. The transportation of such household effects, baggage and automobile shall be made in a single shipment and all subsequent shipments shall be at the expense of the respective members of the Mission except when the result of
